- Alternating between a big payday and scrambling for sales, you are almost always stressed out about achieving your financial goal and often you lose sleep over it!
- You are routinely making "just enough" to get by, even though you work way more than you'd like.
- On some level you see wealthy people as "bad" or you are worried you will be "like them."
- You are trying to do all the right things to grow your cash flow but you can't unlock the code to predictable, sustainable cash flow.
- Your coach, friends or colleagues tell you that you undercharge but you can't imagine charging more.
- The fear of what you will have to give up or change to be more successful is keeping you from achieving more success.
- You are still doing it all yourself because you can't financially justify paying others to help you.
- Your motivation mantra is "I HAVE to make this work" or else I'll be broke, look like a failure or even worse, go and get a job.
- You avoid looking at your bank statements (you tell yourself you don't have time) so you have no idea who much money is flowing in and out of your business.
- You are always busy, disorganized or run out of time to figure out how to achieve more — so you don't.
- You feel like you are blocked by an invisible wall keeping you from achieving your next level of success.
- You hold back from investing in your business growth because are convinced that you can't afford it.
